

A NOTE FROM THE JUNTA

TO RECOGNIZE THEM AS BELLIGERENTS

At the Same Time an Officer Calls Upon Secretary Tracey and Asks That the Arms.

LONDON, June 11.—President Balmaceda has sent the following dispatch to the Reuter's telegram company from Santiago:

Surprise and disdain have been produced here by the false, calumnious statements which the rebels publish in the European press. The rebel congress closed June 1st. The congress lately elected here works regularly. It has approved the acts of the government and has invested it with extraordinary powers and authorized it to contract perpetual debts. The army will be well disciplined and is being trained by a great esprit de corps. The government cannot be vanquished by the rebels, who are only able to prolong the struggle to enrich themselves out of the confusion. The government has no need of an expedition against the government forces and are completely discredited.

General Stephens is at Concord, far away northwest. General Stephens's division is here, after twice crossing the snow-covered Andes. The British, French and German commerce will be prejudiced by the rebels remaining at Tarapaca. The British and French plenipotentiaries, representatives, Matte and Rose, addressed to the European governments is published here.

He speaks of recent lawless acts upon the part of the rebels, and claims that the plenipotentiaries of the provincial government belligerents are on the ground that it is an organization sufficiently regular and responsible to the Chilean government, and foreigners and able to make itself responsible to the plenipotentiaries.

The note maintains that the junta has been invested with regular constitutional authority, by the congress which was elected in March 1888.

The note continues by stating that the congressional party has undisputed jurisdiction over four of the richest provinces of Chili, comprising over half the populated territory of the republic.

The congressional party also claims that it is growing in military power, and that its naval successes are indisputable, enabling it to maintain sovereignty over its territory, and so threatening the provinces still under "Dictator" Balmaceda.

In view of these facts the provisional government says that it is called upon to relations and the Balmaceda government to be considered a perfect international body. The note adds that the probabilities of the future rest with the congressional party which "from the first represented law and right and now also represent force."

The congressional party, therefore, appeals to the "elevated sentiments of justice and humanity entertained by foreign governments to observe the laws of neutrality" in the struggle now proceeding in Chili.

THE CHILIAN TRACT.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The Chilean legation today received a telegram from Chili saying:

that the naval vessels of the government had pursued the insurgents in Tarapaca. The United States Lynced Imperio have bombarded Pisaparo and Iquique and have threatened the insurgent ships which hide among the foreign vessels, so as not to be destroyed by torpedoes. The insurgent vessels are in a very bad condition, the telegram says, and all the ships of the United States navy have been ordered to the constitutional government.

CALLING UPON TRACY.

Ricardo Trumbull, a member of the Chilean insurgent senate, who recently gained some publicity on the Pacific coast, had a long interview with Secretary Tracy today. He declared that he has terms of peace, resulting in the custody of Adolfo Magallanes, and a definite determination of their ownership can be reached. The unconditional landing of the

WHAT TRUMBULL SAYS.

To a representative of the Associated Press, Trumbull said that the country was in a state of affairs in which the people of Chile are in a state of absolute despotism. In his communication to his congress, Balmaceda, he asserted, confessed the truth of this. He (Trumbull) had no hope of relief as a result of the presidential election which takes place in the next month. Balmaceda's adherents, he said, comprised all of the officers, but not the people, as a whole, are opposed to him. He said that the president's adherents, with the courts closed by Balmaceda's orders and suffering practically suppressed, he would find it an easy matter to dictate his successor.

before next September, which is also the date set for the trial of the Itata in California, so that no tangible hope of relief in the near future is to be expected.

Trumbull's visit to Tracy was made in purely personal capacity, and he could, therefore, make no communication that could be of official value to the government. Trumbull also called on Acting Secretary Wharton, of the department, and represented to him informally the state of affairs in Chile.

THE PROPOSAL NOT ACCEPTED.

The Effort Fails to Reconcile the Factions in Chile.

Santiago, via Galveston, June 11.—The amnesty proposed by the American minister at Santiago to Balmaceda was not accepted, but he latter offered to entertain a proposition for his congressional party refuses to assist. The armed transport Imperial, with the torpedo cruisers Lynah and Condell, landed a party at Iquique yesterday, which cut the cable telegraph and destroyed the cable. Today the ships made a demonstration at Antofagasta similar to the demonstration at Iquique and Iquique. No damage is reported. The superior force of the ships enables them to keep clear of the congressional ships.

Morality in Mexico.

CITY OF MEXICO, via Galveston, June 11.—An era of morality has commenced in Mexico. Bull fights and cock fights have been stopped, gambling will be prohibited, and the lottery law will be enforced. The government will not deal with lotteries, will stop all small and irresponsible concerns.

The Connecticut Muddle.

New Haven, Conn., June 11.—The replication of Judge Luten B. Morris to the reply of Governor Hughes to the tobacco returns filed today. The replication in general is a denial of all the allegations of fact made by Governor Hughes. It is a denial of the returns filed, and of the right of the general assembly to go behind the returns. What the next step will be is a question. It is probable that the fight is going behind the returns is closed by pleadings. It is now the turn of the republicans to make their reply. The charges and pleadings are made well nigh interminable.

Tobacco Statistics.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The census office today gave out the tobacco statistics of North Carolina, compiled by Professor Thomas N. Conrad under the direction of John Hyde, special agent in charge of the census of tobacco. The statistics show that the planters in the state during the census year of 1910, planted 1,000,000 acres of tobacco, valued at $7,250,000; total area devoted to tobacco, 97,871 acres.

EMORY COMMENCEMENT

THE EXERCISES AMONG THE MOST BRILLIANT EVER HELD.

A Day of Interest at Andrew Female College and at Shorter College—The Exercises at Auburn, Ala.

OXFORD, Ga., June 11.—[Special].—The exercises here on Tuesday were highly interesting. The annual alumnal meeting was characterized by an able address by Rev. Walker Lewis, of Atlanta, who took the place of Hon. Thomas Hardeman. Vice President J. K. Hines presided.

After touching upon the memory of Colonel Hardeman, Dr. Lewis proceeded with his theme, "The Money Craze the Great Danger of Our Nation." It was splendidly handled.

He spoke of the invasion of the desire for wealth into various territories—even reaching the ministry. "The accumulation of it in the hands of the few," said he, "is corrupting public sentiment and ruining the country. Iago is the patron saint of modern material enterprise. It has caused divine to forget his duties and go to speculate in corner lots. They go about with the gospel in one hand and the grab-bag of speculation in the other."

"These worshippers of gold forget that they can't carry it beyond the headstone, and even if they could it would melt in the torrid climate to which they are going. One day Gould—called by some very glib people a practical philanthropist—got the money of the country together and locked it up last year, when the cotton crop ought to have been moved. He died, leaving an inheritance of $30,000,000 by the operation. Fine philanthropy is this! Iago is said to be pious at times, but the Lord deliver us from it if this is how it asserts itself. This is enough to make our friends of the hayseed persuasion spend their time listening to the apostles of reform expatiate on the subterranean and nominations—chiefly nominations."

"No man has any business with more than $1,000,000. When Alex. Stephens was sent to Fort Monroe the weather was cold, and he was very much wrapped up. So little was left when his wraps were removed that Abraham Lincoln remarked that he never saw such a little nubbins come out of such a big shuck. If Stephens was a nubbins, it was all corn, and good corn, too. If we should get the millionaires together and shuck them of all circumstance and rascality, there would be little left but popcorn or mildewed corn."

"Blood is more than money—soul is more than circumstance—mind is the standard of man. By ceasing to measure men by commercial rating—by a strict graduated income—by enforced prohibition of the transmission of money into righteous ends, this horrible money craze can be cured."

The address was thoroughly appreciated. As Mr. Lewis sat down, Dr. Candler said that while Norwood, Hardeman, L. Q. C. Lamar, and their like, had spoken on similar occasions, the alumni association had never heard a better address. He moved a vote of thanks, which was unanimously carried.

The following exercises took place: Howard E. W. Palmer, of Atlanta, next orator; Colonel John J. Jones, of Waynesboro, president of the association; J. K. Hines, first vice president; Rev. Mr. Hunkeler, second vice president; Capers Dickson, secretary; Professor John F. Bonnell, secretary; executive committee—J. K. Hines, Dr. Candler, J. M. Pace, L. H. Harris, C. W. W. Stone, and John F. Bonnell, Captain R. E. Park, of Macon, was re-elected alumni trustee for a term of three years.

A resolution of thanks was voted to Rev. W. P. Pastillo and others who had contributed to the $100,000 fund.

For best declamation by a sophomore the medal was won by Mr. H. H. Harris, of Oxford; for second sophomore declamation, by Mr. Percy B. Merry, of Berzelia; for the best delivery of the best speech on junior day, by Mr. Carl R. Thompson, of Kuskagee, Ala.

The senior orations yesterday were excellent and received the compliments of such judges as Senator Colquitt, Dr. W. F. Harrison and General C. A. Evans.

The programme, interspersed by Zouave band music, was rendered as follows: J. E. Dickey, second honor, Atlanta, Ga.—Greek salutory.

W. N. Ainsworth, third honor, Thomasville, Ga.—"Philosophical Dissertation—Christ an Ideal Man."

L. W. Branch, Dixie, Ga.—"General William Booth."

J. E. Dickey, second honor, Atlanta, Ga.—"Monuments."

W. F. Fleming, Goggansville, Ga.—"Jefferson Davis."

J. L. Graves, fourth honor, Newton, Georgia—Scientific Dissertation—"Was Primal Man a Savage?"

L. P. Gray, Fort Valley, Ga.—"Bishop George F. Pierce."

J. M. Kimbrough, Jr., Griffin, Ga.—"The Need of Statesmen."

R. H. Little, Sparta, Ga.—"The Present System of Government Incompatible with Good Government."

H. J. Pierce, Columbus, Ga.—"The Ideal—A Creation of the Imagination."

C. B. Sims, Weston, Ga.—"The American Idea."

J. R. Williams, Columbus, Ga.—"The Third Party."

J. S. Jenkins, (first honor) Shiloh, Ga.—"The Courage of Conviction."

Valedictory.

The baccalaureate address by Dr. Candler was a splendid one. He touched upon the evils of the day and showed how they should be corrected. "He who instructs and inspires his own people," said he, "becomes the teacher of all mankind."

AWARD OF DIPLOMAS.

The following were the recipients of diplomas: W. N. Ainsworth, course A. B., Thomasville, La. W. Branch, course A. B., Dixie.

J. W. Burdette, course A. B., Thomson. W. J. Callahan, course A. B., Whitesville.

young man. All acquitted themselves elegantly. The diplomas were awarded with merit to each. The diplomas were delivered by Dr. R. N. Hollifield, president of the board of education.

The annual address was delivered by Hon. Robert L. Rodgers, of Atlanta. This place was formerly his home, and he was received yesterday with cheering, which was almost an ovation, indicative of the esteem in which he is held here.

The address was appreciated and part of it was in the opinion of the speaker to his former home and friends here, and tears welled up into the eyes of many. The theme of the speaker to the graduating class was "Ethics and Aesthetics of Life." The speaker was highly complimented. The prizes were awarded to twenty successful contestants for various contests in studies, and were delivered by Hon. John C. Harman, mayor of Tennessee, a very timely and appropriate address. The closing exercises at night were very interesting in songs, drills and tableaux. The teachers of the school deserve high praise for their efforts and happy success.

Commencement at Shorter College.

ROME, Ga., June 11.—[Special].—Today has been the brightest day in the history of Shorter college. The programme was good, music delicious and several incidents of unusual occurrence made the whole day of proceedings brighter and sweeter.

The song by Misses Rosalie and Cora Clark was a superb rendition.

The award of medals by Colonel W. S. McHenry was highly appreciated. The prizes were highly complimented. The prizes were awarded to twenty successful contestants for various contests in studies, and were delivered by Hon. John T. Boffeille, a very timely and appropriate address. The closing exercises at night were very interesting in songs, drills and tableaux. The teachers of the school deserve high praise for their efforts and happy success.

Abounding in the highest thought and classical allusion on the high plane of the sublimate oratory, his speech before the Polytechnic is pronounced one of the grandest efforts in the history of the institution.

The essay of Miss Davis was complimented. And the address of Miss Sadie Alexander, of the alumnae was a bright gem of sparkling thought.

The curriculum of Shorter college is one of the highest of any female college in the United States. And though from 200 to 300 young ladies receive diplomas each year, the following programme was rendered:

Commencement Day.

PRAYER.

Final of the Fifth symphony—Beethoven—Piano, four players, Misses Sophy Gwaltney and Ida Talley. Misses Nannie Gwaltney and Maggie Reeves.

Miss Sue D. Davis, of Mississippi, (representing the graduating class), Subject: "The Not What Man Does Which Exalts Him, But What He Is."

Essay—Miss Sadie Alexander, of Rome, (representing the Society of Alumnae), Subject: "By a Gentle Hand."

Delivery of college medals—Colonel W. S. McHenry, of Rome.

Dr. H. H. Hark, "My Soul"—Shelley—Misses Rosalie and Cora Clark.

Oration before the Polytechnic Society—Hon. John T. Boffeille, of Macon.

Enforced prohibition to the graduates. Presentation of alumnae badges to the graduates. Presentation of portrait of Dr. Luther R. Gwaltney to Shorter college—Mr. Donald Harper of Rome.

Remarks by the retiring and incoming presidents.

Benediction.

Tonight the young ladies give a reception and the boys of Rome are in great glee.

THE EXERCISES AT AUBURN.

AUBURN, Ala., June 11.—[Special].—The commencement exercises of the Agricultural and Mechanical College and Polytechnic Institute of Alabama have just closed.

By a very large number of graduates who were in attendance on the school the past year, the matriculates being 286. The following is the list of graduates in the regular courses, with subjects of their orations:

Frank G. Gossett, of the county, Alabama—"The Monetary Stringency."

Walter E. Fitzgerald, Georgia—"Genius and Patience."

Charles B. Glenn, Lee county, Alabama—"Imagination and Feeling."

John C. Kiser, Perry county, Alabama—"The Power of the Will."

Clifford L. Hare, Lee county, Alabama—"Heroes; or, the Story of the Life of George Washington."

Charles C. Johnson, Coosa county, Alabama—"False Ethics."

John C. Kiser, Atlanta, Ga.—"The Union of Contemplation and Action."

The honor graduates are as follows: Beverly F. Harwood, Perry county, Alabama, and Charles C. Johnson, Coosa county, Alabama.

Honorary degrees were conferred on the following:

Each of Science—L. E. Baker, H. Benton, F. J. Bivins, Seaborn J. Buckalew, J. A. Cox, J. N. Dean, W. E. Fitzgerald, W. T. Glass, C. B. Glenn, C. L. Hare, W. H. Jones, W. A. Marshall, A. J. McCallen, W. H. Oates, P. Reynolds, W. E. Reynolds, R. C. Smith.

Master of Science—D. G. Little, A. M. Lord, R. E. Noble, J. F. Wilkinson.

The following list of distinguished students, not graduates, awarded special honors:

Champe S. Andrews, Howell H. Cherry, Ebenezer D. Doughty, Joseph A. Driver, Julius C. Doughty, Thomas M. Edwards, Edwin McRay, Paul P. McKeown, Peyton H. Moore, William W. Moore, Robert L. G. Bivins, Massey R. Burton, Miners Davis, Joel Dumas, Hamilton B. Johnston, James M. Marks, Hampton K. Miller, Walter M. Riggs, Charles H. Smith, Joel F. Webb, Walter S. Crump, Elbert C. Avery, Leigh S. Boyd, Charles A. Brown, Henry T. DeBardeleben, Henry F. Dobbin, William E. Egan, Raleigh F. Egan, Raleigh F. Hare, Louis P. Heyman, Arthur L. Jones, Frank McL. Mosely, Walter E. Richards, James L. Richey, George A. Thomas, Robert T. Trammell, T. M. Wimberly, Harmon Benton, Frank J. Bivins, Seaborn J. Buckalew, Walter E. Fitzgerald, Charles B. Glenn, Clifford L. Hare, Beverly F. Harwood, Charles C. Johnson, John C. Kimball, William M. Marshall, Alexander D. McLennan, Pettit Reynolds.

Course in Mechanics and Engineering—Robert J. Trammell.

The annual addresses were:

Monday, 8th, by Professor Charles Lane, of Atlanta, Ga., Subject, "Analysis of Language."

Tuesday, 9th, by Dr. W. H. Blake, of Lineville, Ala. Subject, "Early History of Alabama."

Wednesday, 10th, William Preston Johnston, L.L.D.

Colonel Johnston, who is a son of General Alfred Sidney Johnston, and president of Tulane University, New Orleans, La., embraced in his theme many burning issues of the present.

His address was one of the most chaste, scholarly and glowing feasts of literature that has ever been delivered before an Auburn audience. It was welcomed and enjoyed by all, as evinced by the constant rounds of applause. In fact, the distinguished speaker was so overwhelmed with the appreciation that he finally had to the audience to forbear in their expressions of delight and allow him to proceed without interruption.

THE CONSTITUTION correspondent asked Colonel Johnston for a copy of his address in order that your many readers could have the benefit of so rare an intellectual treat, but the distinguished speaker was unable to furnish the desired matter at present, but the address will be given to your publication at an early day. Dr. Blake's address will also be given to the public at an early day.

Auburn has been full of distinguished visitors, as is always the case upon such occasions. The crowds, however, were not so large this year as usual, in consequence of the continued rains.

The board of trustees, at their annual meeting, elected two new professors for the college. George Petris, master of arts, University of Virginia, adjunct professor of modern languages and history for two years, student of history and literature for two years at the Johns Hopkins university, from which university he has just received the degree of bachelor of philosophy and adjunct professor of electrical and mechanical engineering.

A. F. McKistick, of South Carolina; the faculty of the University of South Carolina says is a young man of exceptional ability and promise. He graduated with great distinction in both classical and scientific courses. He took civil and electrical engineering for his postgraduate degree of master of arts, which he won with honors. His many attainments and abilities are said by his professors to be very superior. He is superintendent of the electric light company, of Columbia, S. C.; for the past four years has been a special student of electrical engineering at Cornell university.

Professor Thomson, the director of speeches, local engineering at Cornell university, writes that he has shown himself to be a man of exceptional maturity, earnestness and talent, and is fully competent to conduct a course of study in electrical or mechanical engineering. High testimonials from other sources. He is now with the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, of Pittsburgh, Pa., at $45,000 a year. He is a man of high character, while on the top of it, beautifully cut in the ice of the college.

Bunting, flags and flowers filled out the decorations and the whole was illuminated by 200 lights, prettily arranged in every conceivable shape. Gentlemen of prominence who have attended banquets throughout the country declared the scene second to none ever witnessed in Georgia. The supper was given by the women of the city and surpassed anything for catering skill ever seen here. That it was enjoyed by those present goes without saying. The following toasts were responded to:

"The College Trustees," Mr. Adolph Joseph; "Education in Georgia," Professor W. E. Reynolds; "Our Union," Hon. Peter J. Clark; "The Future of Georgia," Hon. R. H. Whitfield; Colonel J. D. Howard was master of ceremonies.

At a meeting of the trustees yesterday, the administration of Howard Lane, Co. and the college was elected as president of the college. Professor J. C. Hinton, at present of Wesleyan college, was elected to fill the position vacated by the resignation of Professor Camming.

THE HOME SCHOOL.

Closes the Season With a Fine Record—The Annual Concert.

ATHENS, Ga., June 11.—[Special].—The home school has closed the year's work with a fine record.

Miss Sonowski, the efficient principal, is to be congratulated on the success achieved.

As usual, Atlanta bears off the first honor, that prize falling to the lot of Miss Gussie Rankin, of the Gate City.

tables were literally filled with grandstands of fruits and flowers, while meats of every kind and huge cakes, in which were mostly sweetened with sugar, etc., filled all intervening space.

In the center of the room was a great block of ice, in which was frozen a floral motif. "Welcome to the Home School," was a cake over each ex-Cadet's name. It was a cake over each ex-Cadet's name. It was a cake over each ex-Cadet's name.

The various college societies have had their annual banquets during the season. These banquets have been occasions of many happy reunions and banquets, as it always has been with those who put their hearts into their work with willing hearts and joyful minds.

It is said by those who profess to know that Auburn has never had four more delightful banquets than those of this year. The attendance of lovely women and gallant men has been unusually large at each of the occasions.

Andrew Female College.

CUTHBERT, Ga., June 11.—[Special].—The gala occasion of the whole commencement exercises of the Andrew was the grand concert, Monday night, given by the ladies of the college and his music class. The evening opened with an "overture," in which fourteen young ladies took part with all kinds of instruments, making a most excellent orchestra.

Miss Rose Lee, of Georgia, gave "Shepherd's Evening Song," a piano solo, beautifully. The chorus class was highly applauded, and the piano solo of Miss Lucia Smith, entitled "Belles of New York," was frequently complimented. Miss Mollie Barfield sang, with a sweet voice, "The Bobolink."

A piano duet, by Misses Hettie Tison and Ruby Davis, was applauded. "Carnival of Venice," was sweetly sung by Miss Lucy Twitty. The banjo solo of Miss Hettie Tison called forth an encore. Misses Stella Simpson and Maggie Brown sang "Come to My Heart," very sweetly.

Miss Rebecca Wooten won golden opinions by her excellent music on the piano. The calisthenic exercises closed the evening. These were splendidly executed by the ladies.

This morning the honor girls read essays, Miss Annie Fisher reading the salutatory, and Miss Venie Bussey the valedictory.

The report of President Twitty was the finest ever made by any president, and the board of trustees is delighted with his management. He will have a still larger school than ever, as many express themselves as greatly surprised, even though they expected much.

Rev. D. F. Riley awarded the medals. In art Miss Julia Hay took the prize. Miss Rebecca Parkison has a beautiful collection of paintings. Miss Hattie McGrimmon, of Bainbridge, was first in music. Misses Brown; instrumental music, Miss Rebecca Wooten; elocution, Miss Carrie Felder. Sophomore medal went to Miss Margie Fuller; general studies, Miss Alice W. Hens. Brown and pennmanship to Miss Morris.

Several young ladies got honors in general department. Tonight the Hon. John Temple Graves speaks, and the exercises of Andrew college close for 1891.

Commencement at LaGrange.

LAGRANGE, Ga., June 11.—[Special].—The exercises of yesterday at LaGrange were entirely, both day and night. Large numbers of people crowded the chapel and were enthusiastic in their reception of the young ladies who are now to spend the summer upon the craft that will bear them over life's water.

Instrumental Music—Miss Alice Brown. Vocal Music—Miss Frances Bell. Art—Miss Lucie Stanton.

BETRAYED BY HIS SON.

A MURDER OF 74 SOLVED IN A PECULIAR MANNER.

A Father Refuses to Satisfy a Request for Money—The Enraged Son Threatens Revenge and Succeeds.

COLUMBUS, Ga., June 11.—[Special.]—A very interesting and remarkable discovery was made this afternoon—that for the past seven years an escaped murderer has been living in this city, had married here and had several children. The fact was revealed by the son of the criminal who was cognizant of his father's presence here from the time of his flight, but who had kept it a secret. He only revealed it in a moment of anger caused by his father's refusal to give him some money.

The facts as gleaned by THE CONSTRUCTION correspondent are briefly these: About two weeks ago a big excursion of negroes came to Columbus from Albany and other parts. In the crowd was a negro named Jim Lumpkin, who after taking in the sights and running short of money, called on Bob Cook, a barber in the shop of Bob Martin, who he stated was his father, and asked the old man for some money.

Cook declined to give him any, and some hot words ensued. Then Lumpkin left the shop, with the remark, in a threatening manner: "You'll be sorry for this."

After leaving the place, Lumpkin encountered Policeman James Terry, and told him that the negro barber, Bob Cook, in the Martin shop, was his father, that his right name was Lumpy Lumpkin, that, eighteen years ago, he had killed a white man, Eli Burney, in Oglethorpe, and had escaped, and that he had been living in Columbus for over seven years.

Policeman Terry immediately reported the fact to Chief Beards, who wrote to Sheriff Matthew Gilmer, at Oglethorpe, asking him for the information, and that Jim Lumpkin had returned on the excursion train, and no one knew from whence he had come.

Sheriff Gilmer on receiving the letter from Chief Beards at once proceeded to investigate the court records, and found that Eli Burney had been killed by a negro, named Lumpy Lumpkin, in the year 1873, in Oglethorpe, and that a warrant had been issued for his arrest, but the negro had fled, and as no reward had been offered for his apprehension, the search was apparently abandoned, and nothing further had been heard of him.

This was a long time before Sheriff Gilmer's term, and the man who was sheriff at the time of the murder had since died. Sheriff Gilmer, however, wrote to the chief to capture Bob Cook, and he would send for him. Cook or Lumpkin, deserted a wife and four children in Oglethorpe when he fled, and Jim Lumpkin, the son, who gave this information, is the eldest, and had, unknown to his mother, been in communication with his father, who she thought was dead, and three years after the flight she had married.

This letter was received this afternoon and Chief Beards instructed Policeman Terry to take Bob Cook into custody. On going to the barber shop this evening Terry learned that Cook had, in some way, been apprised of the investigation being made in Oglethorpe and that his son had betrayed him. Two days ago he suddenly left the city, abandoning the woman he had married here and several children. All that could be ascertained was that he had received a letter from Oglethorpe, the contents of which he did not divulge, and left immediately after.

His whereabouts now are unknown, but efforts will be made to apprehend him. He is about fifty years of age; very black and rather genteel in appearance.

THEY ARE AFTER HIM.

John Ryan's Sons' Bookkeeper in Watkinsonville.

WATKINSONVILLE, Ga., June 11.—[Special.]—This morning a Mr. Dowling, of John Ryan's Sons' bookkeepers, was in Watkinsonville. He came to see the testimony of Charlie Langford, a Watkinsonville boy, who was formerly cashier for the large firm of John Ryan's Sons that recently failed in your city.

Mr. Dowling's trip to Watkinsonville availed him nothing, as Mr. Langford refused to talk to him in reference to the amount of cash taken in by the firm in a day.

And that is what brought Dowling to Watkinsonville to find out what Langford would swear in reference to the cash sales of the firm he represented.

Charlie says money will be no inducement for him to swear falsely in reference to the sales and when the proper time comes he will tell what he knows.

We learn that he has already signed affidavits for the creditors certifying to the amount of cash taken in a day and places the amount from $5,000 to $8,000.

Langford says he will keep mum until the proper time comes for him to talk about the big failure.

THE GROWING NEGRO HAIR.

Proves to Be Nothing but a Vegetable Growth.

ATHENS, Ga., June 11.—[Special.]—The negro hair sensation has been exploded.

A piece of the cotton seed and hair was taken to Dr. J. P. Campbell, of the university faculty, and submitted to a microscopic examination.

It is in no respect like hair when placed under the microscope, being finer in texture and glossier, and is semi-transparent, while hair is opaque.

It is a vegetable growth and resembles cotton fiber. It is thought to be cotton fiber with different coloring matter.

It will be given another examination. The negro who comes at night and rakes it away can rest easy.

Augusta's New Insurance Company.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 11.—[Special.]—A new insurance company was organized in Augusta today and will be ready for business in two weeks. It is the Southern Mutual Accident Insurance Company. It will be a big thing for Augusta, and will keep at home many thousands of dollars for new points and other companies. Among the organizers of the company are Judge Roney, Captain C. E. Coffin, E. T. Williams, J. F. Verdery, Tom W. Alexander.

Will Go by the Central.

MACON, Ga., June 11.—[Special.]—This afternoon it was finally decided that the second Georgia regiment would go from Macon to Chickamauga via the Central railroad. There has been a lively contest between the Central and East Tennessee roads for the transportation of soldiers, and the colonel has at last decided in favor of the Central. The regiment will go from Macon to Chickamauga without change over the Central's continuous line.

Factory Operatives in Convention.

AUGUSTA, Ga., June 11.—[Special.]—A large mass meeting of factory operatives was held tonight in Hartsburg to organize a movement to have the hours of labor reduced. A committee was appointed to memorialize the mill presidents for shorter working hours.

KILLED WITH A RAIL.

A WHITE MAN SLAIN BY A NEGRO NEAR ALBANY.

Mr. N. D. Mercer and Warren Crawford Start for Home—A Dispute Results in a Tragedy.

ALBANY, Ga., June 11.—[Special.]—A horrible tragedy was enacted about nine miles from this city yesterday afternoon, in which Mr. N. D. Mercer, a young white man, twenty-four years old, was killed by a negro, named Warren Crawford.

The weapon used was a fence rail. Mercer and Crawford came to Albany Wednesday, the former in a buggy and the latter in a two-horse wagon. While here Mr. Mercer purchased a considerable quantity of merchandise for his store in Worth county, which, being more than he could carry on his buggy, employed Crawford, who lived near him, to take out on his wagon, paying him 25 cents for the service.

At Pinley Woods creek, nine miles from the city, they became involved in a dispute and cursed each other freely, when Crawford stopped his wagon and threw Mercer's goods on the ground.

THE BLOODY DEED.

Mercer then got out of his buggy and went to Crawford's wagon and started to cut a piece of meat off a side belonging to himself for the quarter which he had paid the negro, when the latter, running to a fence and securing a rail, returned and struck Mercer a terrible blow, knocking him senseless.

Crawford then got in his wagon and drove to his home.

Pink Jenkins, who witnessed the difficulty, then took Mr. Mercer in his buggy and carried him home, where he died at an early hour this morning from his injuries.

ARREST OF THE MURDERER.

Crawford, after driving home, made no effort to escape, and was arrested at his home near Warwick by Deputy Sheriff Taylor, of Worth county, who brought him to this city today and lodged him in jail.

It is thought Crawford, who was a tenant on the farm of Mr. W. J. Ford, of this city, had a grudge against Mr. Mercer, who was aware of the fact that he had been stealing Mr. Ford's corn and selling it, and had so informed Mr. Ford.

The dead man leaves a wife and two children, and his lawyer, who is a partner, is perfectly sober when the difficulty occurred.

WHICH IS THE LAWFUL WIFE?

An Interesting Case Being Tried in Bibb Superior Court.

MACON, Ga., June 11.—[Special.]—A very interesting case was set for trial today in Bibb superior court, but on account of the sickness of Judge Clifford Anderson, one of the attorneys, the hearing was postponed. Briefly, the case is this: Some time ago a colored man named George A. Comer died. He left an estate valued at $10,000 to $12,000. At the time of his death he was living with a woman named Ann Comer, who he said, was his lawful wife. Soon after the death of Comer another woman named Eliza Comer appeared on the scene and declared that she was the true and lawful wife of the deceased, and that Ann Comer had never been lawfully married to him. The estate was then divided between the two women and to whom the property belongs.

THE LIGHTS WERE NOT ON.

And the Moon Was Hidden Behind the Clouds.

GRiffin, Ga., June 11.—[Special.]—The citizens are raising a just howl against the non-appearance of the electric lights of late. For some time they have not been turned on until some time after dark, but last night it was near 10 o'clock before they were put on. The managers stated some day ago the reason they were so late in turning them on was to avoid the boys that gather in the early evening, which was considerable (?) on the part of the management. Their excuse for last night was that the "moon was shining." The city's contract is to the effect that no lights are required during moonlight nights, unless the weather is cloudy and dark, which was the case last night, and in that event the lights are to be turned on as in dark nights. The fault, to some extent, may rest with the city for making such a contract, but even in that event the electric light company is acting in bad faith and meriting the condemnation that is being heaped upon it by an indignant community.

Sporting in Griffin.

GRiffin, Ga., June 11.—[Special.]—The Griffin Gun Club held their annual shoot at Lyndon park this afternoon. Mr. L. C. Aycock was the champion shot, breaking twenty-four out of twenty-five pigeons.

Griffin is in the "win" again so far as baseball is concerned. A club has been organized and is practicing daily. They expect soon to begin a tour of the state, playing the best teams in the larger cities. Their intention is to soon try the tars and feathers.

The Line Abandoned.

TALBOTTON, Ga., June 11.—[Special.]—The telegraph line from Geneva to Talbotton has been abandoned for the present and we are now entirely without any telegraphic communication.

"Get Wisdom."

When you get that you will get Pearline. A million wise women have got it already. With it, they have clean clothes that are not worn out with rubbing or injured by chemicals, and everything in the house is spotless. Without it, they have harder work and worse results. But they'll never be without it.

Beware of imitations which are being peddled from door to door. First quality goods do not require such desperate methods to sell them. PEARLINE sells on its merits, and is manufactured only by JAMES PYLE, New York.

FRANK WILMOUTH KILLED BY A CONRADE.

The Shooting Occurred Yesterday Afternoon and Wilmouth Soon Died—McCravy Gives Himself Up to the Officers.

Frank Wilmouth was shot through the head yesterday afternoon by Tom McCravy.

The shot was fatal, and Wilmouth died in a few hours without uttering a word.

The shooting occurred at Peyton, seven miles from the city, on the Georgia Pacific road.

Both Wilmouth and McCravy are young white men, the former being twenty-one and the latter nineteen years of age, and have always been good friends.

Soon after the shooting, McCravy came to the city and gave himself up to the officers.

There was only one witness to the tragedy, Carey Tuggle, a friend to both parties. He accompanied McCravy to the station house where the latter gave himself up.

He was seen by a reporter, to whom he told the story of the killing.

Wilmouth, McCravy, Tuggle and a fourth young man were sitting on a fast car at Peyton, waiting for a freight train on which they intended to ride to the city. Wilmouth and Tuggle had been on the wreck on the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia at Nickajack, and the other two had been at the river fishing.

While sitting on the car Wilmouth asked McCravy for a nickel he had borrowed some time before, and the latter took the money from his pocket and paid the debt. At the same time he drew out a pair of dice.

Wilmouth took the dice and wanted McCravy to throw "craps" with him for a nickel. McCravy said he had no money to lose and refused to throw. Just then the nickel dropped and was picked up by Tuggle, who jokingly slipped it in his pocket. He says that Wilmouth, in a spirit of mischief, pretended that he thought McCravy had it and refused to return the dice until the money was given to him. Tuggle told Wilmouth he had the money, but the latter kept telling McCravy to give him the money if he wanted the dice.

Soon afterwards the party got off the car and began walking down the railroad track. Tuggle says he walked ahead of the others and had no thought of any trouble, although he kept hearing McCravy ask for his dice. Finally he heard some rough language used, and, turning round, saw McCravy with his pistol drawn and Wilmouth with a rock in each hand.

As he turned he heard Wilmouth say:

"You ————, don't you draw that pistol on me."

As he spoke he hurled a rock at McCravy, barely missing his head. He then rushed up to him and struck him twice just below the eyes with his fist, making a bad bruise.

McCravy told him to stop, as he didn't want to have any trouble, and if it was the dice he wanted he could have them.

Wilmouth continued his abuse, and threw several more rocks. McCravy expostulated, but finally ran off some distance in a cotton patch. Tuggle says he and Wilmouth started off up the track and he told Wilmouth to leave the matter alone and give up the dice. Wilmouth refused and started to follow McCravy.

He picked up some rocks, and, as he approached, McCravy said:

"If you throw again I will shoot."

Wilmouth threw another rock, and as he did so McCravy fired.

Wilmouth fell to the ground, with a hole just above the left temple. He struggled in the dirt and mud, but would not speak. Tuggle rushed up and seeing the man's condition, said to McCravy:

"Tom, you've shot him. Go for a doctor."

The nearest physician was Dr. Fisher, two miles and a half distant. Without stopping to think, McCravy started off in a run, and by 2:30 o'clock, an hour after the shooting, he was at the injured man's side. He at once pronounced the wound fatal, probing it into the brain.

At 4 o'clock, just before the man died, McCravy and Tuggle left for Atlanta, and at once went to the police station, where McCravy was locked up.

He is quite young looking, and has the appearance of an ordinary country boy. He lives with his father, a farmer, near Mount Vernon church.

He tells the same story as that of Tuggle, and tells it in an innocent manner. He says he doesn't carry a pistol usually, but put one in his pocket yesterday, as he was going fishing, and thought he might see something to shoot. He says he hated the shooting, and when he did so he had no idea he would hit Wilmouth, as they were forty yards apart.

He seemed greatly confused by the occurrence, and spoke of it in a rather rambling manner.

Wilmouth, the young man who was shot, is a son of Mr. William Wilmouth, who keeps a meat market in Bellwood.

The coroner will hold an inquest today.

THE FIRM OF ADAIR BROS. & CO., HAS
 this day, by mutual consent, dissolved copartnership. J. G. B. Adair withdrawing from the firm. Either partner is authorized to sign the firm's name in making settlements at the old business. The other members, A. D. Adair, G. W.
 J. D. McCarry, will continue business at the same location, 214 West Alabama st., under the firm name of A. D. Adair & McCarry Bros.

Thanking our friends for past favors, and solliciting a continuance of the patronage to the new firm, we are, very respectfully,

A. D. ADAIR,
 G. W. ADAM,
 G. W. MCCARTY.

NEWS OF SOCIETY.

A DELIGHTFUL RECEPTION TENDERED ST. PHILIP'S PASTOR.

Miss Adams married to Mr. Noyes, of Cedarhurst—Other Events of Interest to the People of Atlanta.

A delightful reception was tendered Rev. Mr. Tupper and his family last evening by the congregation of St. Philip's church. The chapel, where the reception was held, was profusely and artistically decorated with palms and flowers. The pillars and chandeliers were twined with graceful floral wreaths and other designs, the whole presenting a very bright and picturesque appearance.

The affair was wholly informal. About 300 of the congregation, a notably large percentage of these ladies, were present to meet and welcome the new pastor and his family.

The programme was wholly impromptu; beginning with a song, "Afterwards," from Muller, by Mr. Sessions, of the choir. It was delightfully rendered.

Next was a recitation by Miss May Tupper, "Mrs. McWilliams and the Lightning." It was one of the finest amateur recitations ever heard in Atlanta, displaying a most dramatic talent.

Miss Tupper is a charmingly beautiful and graceful young lady, and her recitation last evening gives promise of a brilliant future.

Mrs. W. L. Evans sang "Only to See You, Darling." This was one of the prettiest features of the entertainment. Mrs. Evans is a soprano in St. Philip's choir; said to be now the finest in the state.

Professor La Cleure, the basso of the choir, sang "Anchored," in the most beautiful and artistic manner; and was warmly applauded.

Refreshments were then served, and after this the ladies and gentlemen not already acquainted with the pastor, were introduced to Dr. Tupper and Mrs. Tupper.

The reception was a thoroughly pleasant affair; the occasion of many pleasant incidents, and a tribute to the already established popularity of Dr. Tupper.

This From The Calhoun Times:
The many friends of Miss Mamie Pitts will be glad to learn that she has been elected assistant principal of the Wallace street school in Atlanta. Miss Maud McDaniel is also retained as teacher for the fifth grade in the same school. Scores of friends here congratulate the young ladies on their enviable success in Atlanta.

Miss Cora Lyon, the daughter of Colonel Tom Lyon, passed through Atlanta yesterday from Baltimore, where she has just graduated at Mrs. Lifever's college, one of the finest schools in the country. Miss Lyon is one of Carterville's most charming young ladies, and many friends will be glad to welcome her back to Georgia.

A most entertaining concert will be given at the Railroad Young Men's Christian Association hall, 605 South Broad street, Friday, June 10th. The concert will be given by Mr. Edward Buchanan, a talented young amateur violinist, assisted by Mr. William G. Leas, pianist; Mr. Carl Barth, flutist; Mr. T. S. McCarty and Miss May Evans. The tickets are only 50 cents and can be had at the hall.

The American Recorder has two notices of Atlanta people that will be read with interest. That paper says:

Mrs. Willis B. Tappan, of Atlanta, passed through American yesterday on her way to Stewarts county, where she will for several weeks be the guest of friends and relatives. Mrs. Tappan is well known here, and on her return home she will stop with American friends for several days.

Miss Carrie Crane, of Atlanta, whose early marriage to Dr. William Perrin Nicolson is announced, is well known in American. Her admirers here will wish her the best of good luck and happiness which is supposed to attend the marriage of one of so many rare charms of mind and person as Miss Crane.

Miss McKinley's select school closed on Thursday for a summer vacation. The term just ended completes the fourth year of this popular school, and its success has been equally as marked as the preceding successful years. The honor scholars are:

High School Department—John Calhoun Kirkpatrick, 97; William French, 96; Louis Garrard Castelman, 95.

Grammar Grades—Susie Lee Ray, 98; Annie Byers, 98; Beatie Ray, 98; Jay Youngblood, 97; Lillian Traynham, 96; Walter Meador, 96; Geise Ray, 96; John D. Turner, 95; Lutz Hummel, 95; Joseph Kingsbury, 95; J. Edgar Baker, 95; William Meador, 95; William Traynham, 95; William Tanner, 95.

Mr. James L. Logan and family, Misses Ruth and Stella Carr and Miss John Johnson leave tonight for St. Simon's and Cumberland.

Mr. Henry D. Hynds will go to St. Simon's for a week or ten days leaving tonight.

Captain Lavender R. wife and daughter, Miss Ruby, leave tonight for St. Simon's.

Dr. Allen and wife are located at the Leyden.

Boston, Ga., June 11.—(Special.)—Quite a brilliant wedding took place last evening at the home of Dr. Mallett. The bride, Miss Mary Mallett, was the daughter of Dr. Mallett, editor of The Boston World, and Miss Eugenia Mallett, one of Boston's loveliest daughters. Quite a large crowd was in attendance. The presence was numerous and valuable. They left tonight for Atlanta, Hopewell, and other near Georgia places to spend their honeymoon.

Miss Florence Augusta Adams and Mr. James A. Noyes were quietly married, at the residence of the bride's mother, on Marietta street, yesterday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. J. Noyes, brother of the groom, in the presence of the family. At 3:30 o'clock the happy couple left for Cedarhurst, where they will live temporarily.

After their arrival in Cedarhurst, Mr. and Mrs. Noyes were tendered a reception by the groom's brother, Colonel John Crabbe. It was a brilliant affair.

Miss Hattie Dougherty has returned from La-Grange, Ga., where she has just graduated from the Southern Female college.

The many friends of Mrs. Dr. William King will be sorry to hear of his illness.

Miss Nelson, accompanied by her friend, Miss Mitchell, of Lima, O., leave this evening for Savannah, to sail on Friday morning for New York. They will make an extended visit in and near Boston and return through Ohio about the 1st of September.

The Atlanta people who feel an interest in the career of Miss Loula Porter, the little Atlanta girl who has made such a success on the stage, will be glad to know that she has received a flattering offer from Edna Ellsler for next season, and has accepted the offer. The engagement is at an increase in salary over this season, and is very much more desirable in some other respects. Next season she will play leading comedy and ingenue roles, for which she is peculiarly well equipped, and in which she is sure to add to her former successes. Miss Porter will soon visit her relatives in Atlanta.

Why?
The German squadron of the Pacific has been ordered to proceed to Chilian waters.

Do you know why? Not then The Enquirer will tell you.

It is because European diplomats have gathered the impression that the voluntary surrender of the Itata was based upon an understanding that the administration of the United States of America would, in the settlement of her case, recognize the belligerent rights of the Chilian insurgents.

That is why. There are niter beds in it.

Simpler than It Seemed.
"Mr. Sharpset," inquired an attentive hostess, "how in the world do you manage to eat that hot soup without burning yourself?"

"Madame," was the pathetic reply, "I am burning myself."

Striking Coincidence.
The new people's party and the cyclone season seem to be in together.

Mrs. Winton's beautiful dress is the best of all costumes for Chilian Tanning. She is a belle.

A GRAND PIANO

WILL PLAY A PART IN HELPING THE GRADY HOSPITAL.

A Gift from the Atlanta Piano Company. Chairman Hirsch's Acknowledgments—He Returns Thanks.

A grand piano—an "Atlanta Grand"—will add to the revenues of the Grady hospital.

The piano was presented to the hospital by the Atlanta Piano Company, and in his note to Chairman Hirsch Mr. Holliday, of the company, expresses the wish that it be disposed of in a way to bring the largest amount to the hospital.

The letter of Mr. Holliday to Mr. Hirsch was this:

ATLANTA PIANO COMPANY, MANUFACTURERS OF FIRST-CLASS UPRIGHT PIANO FORTE, FACTORY NO. 5 BADER STREET, WAREHOUSE 37 WHITEHALL STREET, ATLANTA, GA., June 10.

Hon. Joseph Hirsch, Chairman Grady Hospital Committee, My Dear Sir: We are very glad to have you one of our best pianos, "made at our factory in this city," to be disposed of as you may deem proper for the benefit of the grand object you are engaged in.

Mr. Grady was our friend, and to every industry that had for its object the prosperity of Atlanta, he was the eloquent champion. We appreciate the obstacles that you have to contend with, and wish it was in our power to advance this interest still farther to remove them from your path.

We sincerely hope that the means to complete this noble institution will be forthcoming, thus securing to the people of Georgia a blessing worthy the name of Atlanta's best friend and Georgia's most devoted son. We remain yours truly.

J. S. HOLLIDAY, President.

To this, Chairman Hirsch replied as follows:

ATLANTA, Ga., June 11, 1891.—Atlanta Piano Company, J. S. Holliday, President. Dear Sir: Your letter of the 10th was received, and your magnificent gift for the benefit of the Henry W. Grady hospital was noted. I will do all in my power to realize a good sum from the piano, and can only thank you for the willingness and promptitude with which you responded to our call. Yours truly, JOSEPH HIRSCH, Chairman.

A Card of Thanks.
Chairman Hirsch desires through THE CONSTITUTION to return his thanks to Mr. DeGivie for the use of the opera house, to Bill Poster Dooley for distributing programmes, to the newspapers for their part in aiding in making the recent concert a success.

Several interesting entertainments will be given in the near future for the benefit of the hospital.

RED RIVER OUT OF ITS BANKS.
And the Crops Are Badly Damaged—Loss of Life.

St. Louis, June 11.—A dispatch from Gainesville, Tex., says the rise in the Red river is unprecedented, exceeding by far in volume the great flood of 1887. At Warren's and Silvi's bends, twenty miles northwest of here, the destruction is widespread. In these two bends there were 10,000 acres of corn, cotton and small grain. All these crops are destroyed and most of the houses are swept away and large numbers of cattle, hogs and chickens drowned.

At Yellow Banks, a Mr. Berdane was drowned while trying to reach the shore in an old ferry boat. Santa Fe bridge, seven miles north of Gainesville, has been repaired and trains passed over today, the first since last Saturday.

Near Leon, I. T., thirty miles from here, on the Red river, the dead bodies of a man, a woman and a little babe were found in the drift. The bodies have not been identified. Other tragic incidents continue to be reported.

LACEY'S REPORT.
Regarding the Keystone National Bank, of Philadelphia.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Mr. Lacey, comptroller of the currency, has completed the preparation of his report in regard to the Keystone National bank of Philadelphia. It is a very long and exhaustive document and gives a detailed and circumstantial account of the comptroller's action in the matter, together with the reports received from the local committee conducting the present investigation in Philadelphia, the authorities here having concluded that it would be establishing a bad precedent to allow anybody other than congress to investigate federal officials and to have access to the official records of the government. It is expected that the comptroller's report will supply all information in that connection required by the committee, conducting the municipal investigation.

THE FREE COINAGE COMMITTEE.
Will Meet at the Hoffman House Next Week.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The meeting of the free coinage silver committee, which was to have been held in Washington on the 18th inst., will take place on the same date at the Hoffman house in New York instead of the Hoffman house in New York.

They will meet at 10 o'clock in the morning, and take up the work of promotion of free coinage where they left it at their last meeting. A proposition for a compromise on the coinage of the products of the American mines is not regarded favorably by the committee, and they say they have nothing but the fullest sense of the duty of the senate and claim to have enough votes to carry it through the next congress.

Off for the Encampment.
OXFORD, Ala., June 11.—(Special.)—The Mountain Rifles, the crack company of north Alabama, left yesterday morning at 7 o'clock for encampment at Mobile. Their gallant captain went with them, notwithstanding he is still on three legs. Alabama contains no more unselfish, noble-hearted men than handsome Will Orr. The company will join the Anniston military and academy team on its Louisville and Nashville tour, where they will meet the soldiers of Birmingham and north Alabama. Oxford is proud of the soldier boys, and many wishes go forth for their health and happiness.

The Sun's Cotton Review.
NEW YORK, June 11.—Futures opened lower quickly rallied, then made a slight advance, closing steady at one to three points advance from yesterday's closing prices. The excitement of yesterday was wholly wanting today. The break of two to three points in Liverpool met with but a partial response in our market. A more complete consideration of the Chronicle and bureau reports show that they are really quite unfavorable to prospects for the next crop. There was, consequently some buying for lost account, as well as the covering of contracts. The advance was slight, however, and speculation not active. Spot cotton was again 1-16 lower.

Mr. T. J. McConnell's Side.
Mr. T. J. McConnell, of Carnesville, Ga., the young man referred to in THE CONSTITUTION several days ago in an article headed "They did not fight," sends THE CONSTITUTION a card giving his side of the case.

He says he was not hunting for a fight, nor did he make any engagement for a fight at Clark university. The other man had threatened to thrash him, and he simply notified the other man that he was in Atlanta. He was ready to fight if the other man really wanted to thrash him; but as no attack was made or threatened while he was in Atlanta nothing came of it.

UPON HIS METTLE.

JUDGE ROSS FINES A DEFAULTING JUROR.

Who Insists That His Right Initials Should Be on the Summons—Other Macon Gossip.

MACON, Ga., June 11.—(Special.)—What did the meeting of the state fair committee in this city yesterday mean?

It may mean more than is apparent; it may be the forerunner of a final split between Macon and the State Agricultural Society.

It may lead to the location of the fair in Atlanta or some other city.

When the Central City park was leased to the agricultural society, the city entered into certain agreements and made certain contracts relative to the maintenance of the park property, and for improvements called for by the necessities of the fair.

During the last fair $1,022 was expended in different ways by the fair authorities, which they held came under the contracts made with the city. A bill for this amount, specifying the building of the fair grounds, the sprinkling of the track was rendered. Council, after considering the claim, refused to pay for anything except the sprinkling of the track, which cost $87.50. This called forth the indignation of the fair authorities and while not a word of what passed with the committee yesterday can be ascertained, it is pretty generally conceded that the matter received much unfavorable criticism at their hands. They claim it was in accordance with the contract made, and council refuses to pay.

Now what is to be done? Will the society take legal steps to secure its payment, or will the society simply resort to a disruption?

These are questions that are in the wind, and an answer would be by no means amiss. It cannot be denied that a satisfactory adjustment might best promote the interests of the next fair.

But as to whether or not the society will precipitate any extreme measures is the most important question. It is generally admitted that the frictions between the fair authorities and the city, which have frequently taken place of late, are not calculated to make either side more tolerant, and some final understanding might be expected.

The news cannot give these rumors as worthy of credence, but they at least demand consideration.

Another feature that lends seriousness to the matter is the fact that Atlanta, Augusta and Columbus would welcome the state fair with open arms, and should the extreme be resorted to in Macon a scramble between these cities might be expected.

A gentleman well posted in fair matters said today that he thought it would be well for Macon to act with care. Said he, "if the state fair is removed from Macon, it is in my opinion that it will be held in Augusta, Columbus and then finally settle down in Atlanta."

As to whether or not the coming fair is jeopardized by the present trouble is not known, but it is believed Atlanta would not hesitate to reimburse the society for any expenditures it has already made, should the breach become so great as to demand an immediate change.

THE JUDGE ON HIS METTLE.
He Fined a Defaulting Juror Who Talked and Wrote Too Much.

MACON, Ga., June 11.—(Special.)—Last Monday a week ago, Mr. D. R. Malone was served with a subpoena to serve as a juror in the city court. The summons was directed to D. R. Malone. There is a D. E. Malone in the jury box, and Mr. D. R. Malone declined to go to the court under a summons directed to D. E. Malone, especially as D. R. Malone's name is in the jury box as Drury Malone and all summonses have heretofore been directed to him as Drury Malone. The bailiff returned to the court and reported that Mr. Malone refused to come on the summons directed to D. R. Malone.

The bailiff then returned to Mr. Malone and informed him that he was the man wanted, whether his initials were D. R. or D. E. Mr. Malone refused to go unless he received a summons directed to Drury or D. R. Malone.

On Thursday of last week Judge Ross imposed a fine of $5 on Mr. Malone in failing to come to court. After court, and when Judge Ross had retired to his private room, Mr. Malone went in to see him and told him that under the circumstances which he had explained for his non-appearance that he thought he had been unjustly fined, and it is said that Mr. Malone further told Judge Ross that if he did not remit the fine that he would write him up in the papers. It is said that Judge Ross became vexed and dared Mr. Malone to enter the courtroom and talk to him in any such manner.

Judge Ross denies that he made any "dare" to Mr. Malone, as that was not his style. Mr. Malone insists that Judge Ross did make the "dare."

On Saturday Mr. Malone published a card in THE TELEGRAPH, in which he outlined the above statements, and then concluded by saying:

"The deputy sheriff, having failed to find Mr. D. E. Malone, handed me the summons, and I failed to respond to same, as I was not my name, and I did not think it my duty to hunt expect there. There are going on before us in the lives of many a wife and mother in our American cities today, who, between her duties to her husband, her children, her church and the calls of society, which she often must not slight, because of her husband's position, present or aspired to, is being killed before our eyes, tortured at the time by the incompetent domestic service which makes house-keeping and the creation of a comfortable home almost an impossibility. One such woman I saw die in New York only a few years ago at thirty-nine, literally killed by the brave effort to do all her duty, and they are 'dying thus around us every day,' with brave smiles on their faces. You may see them by hundreds in the streets and at afternoon receptions in any American city if you have been initiated into the land, and know the passwords and the grip. If you do not you will think that they are brilliant and beautiful women, and invariably bow the head before them for their goodness and their womanliness, but you will not know that you are rendering homage to martyrs as truly as if you saw them led into the coliseum as playthings for a Nubian lion, and just as truly on account of their religion."

The Tragedies of Life.
From the "Technique of Rest," by Anna C. Brackett, in Harper's Magazine for June.

The real tragedies of life are often to be found where we should perhaps least expect them. There are going on before us in the lives of many a wife and mother in our American cities today, who, between her duties to her husband, her children, her church and the calls of society, which she often must not slight, because of her husband's position, present or aspired to, is being killed before our eyes, tortured at the time by the incompetent domestic service which makes house-keeping and the creation of a comfortable home almost an impossibility. One such woman I saw die in New York only a few years ago at thirty-nine, literally killed by the brave effort to do all her duty, and they are 'dying thus around us every day,' with brave smiles on their faces. You may see them by hundreds in the streets and at afternoon receptions in any American city if you have been initiated into the land, and know the passwords and the grip. ## UNIVERSITY TRUSTEES

THEY HELD A PRELIMINARY MEETING YESTERDAY.

Some Important Matters That Are to Be Considered—A Successor to Professor Jones—Commencement Festivities.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 11.—(Special.)—The board of trustees met today in the university library hall. The members of the board present were: Messrs. Gresham, Billups, Hollis, Harris, Stovall, Thomas, Hall, Dr. Miller, ex-Governor McDaniel, Judge Hutchins, General Lawton, McIntyre and Colonel Hammond. Colonel Schreger and Dr. Felton were excused on account of sickness. The other members of the board have not yet arrived, but will probably be in the city today or tonight.

The chancellor's report was submitted, and will be acted on tomorrow.

Hon. W. Y. Atkinson, president of the Georgia Female Industrial school, was present, and will present his report tomorrow.

Among other things the chancellor's report contains a recommendation as to the establishment of the normal school. The action of the board upon this feature will be awaited with much interest. Opinion is strongly in favor of the school, and in all probability the action of the board will be favorable to its establishment.

The vacancy created by the resignation of Dr. Jones in the department of geology comes up also for consideration as it is necessary to fill the chair immediately or before the fall session. Nothing further was done than hearing the reports submitted, and the board adjourned to meet this morning at 10 o'clock.

The Cottillion Club.
The Cottillion Club, composed of several young men of the city, opened the commencement games with a game at the opera house tonight. The chancellor's reception, which was to have occurred tonight, has been withdrawn, on account of sickness in Dr. Bogue's family. Evidences are such as to point to a very brilliant commencement.

Stabbing Affray at Creswell.
GRIFFIN, Ga., June 11.—(Special.)—A report reached the city this afternoon of a serious fight which occurred at Creswell, on the Griffin and North Alabama railroad.

The fight is stated to be between J. J. Norton and F. S. Freeman, two farmers. It is stated that Norton used his knife freely on Freeman, inflicting numerous painful and serious wounds on his face and head. From the information at hand, the difficulty arose over a game of cards, but where the parties were playing is not stated.

Men of Nerve.
From THE SAN FRANCISCO ARGONAUT.

It was in India. Dinner was just finished in the messroom, and several English officers were sitting about the table. Their bronzed faces had the set but not unkindly look common among military men. The conversation, at best, had been uninteresting, and just now there was a lull, as the night was too hot for small talk. The major of the regiment, a clean-cut man of fifty-five, turned toward the next neighbor at the table, a young subaltern, who was leaning back in his chair with his hands clasped behind his head, staring through the cigar smoke at the ceiling. The major was slowly looking the man over, from his handsome face down, when, with sudden alertness, and in a quiet, steady voice, he said: "Don't move, please. Can you stand the strain?" The subaltern barely whispered, "Yes," and his face paled slightly.

"Burke," said the major, addressing an officer across the table, "pour some of this milk into a saucer, and set it on the floor here just back of me. Gently, man. Gently. You must be careful. The officer who was sitting next to the saucer walked with it carefully across the table, and set it down where the major had indicated on the floor. Like a marble statue sat the young subaltern in his white linen clothes, while the cobra di capello, which had been crawling up the leg of his trousers, slowly raised its head, then turned, descended to the floor, and glided towards the milk. Suddenly the silence was broken by the report of the major's revolver, and the snake lay dead on the floor. "Thank you, major," said the subaltern, as the two men shook hands warmly; "you have saved my life." "You're welcome, my boy," replied the senior; "but you did your share."

A NEW SNAKE STORY.
A Bright Novelist's Adventure Out West—A Snake Battle.

William Hosea Ballou, the novelist, contributes the following snake story, together with an affidavit vouching for its truthfulness: "Some years ago while I was young and adventurous I went west to prospect and gather materials for a story. One day after we had gotten into the Rocky mountains an old pioneer with us said: 'Wal, I guess we air gettin' into the snake region now.' I did not know exactly what he meant then, but I soon found out. It was my custom to stray off from the party alone and gather specimens of old geological formations. Two days after the old pioneer had spoken of snakes and I had forgotten all about them, I was out investigating a canyon. It seemed to be a peculiar kind of nature. Way down at its bottom I could see the silurine traces of the earth's formation. I found a way to gradually descend, and very soon discovered a plateau and also a big cave in the side of the canyon. My ears were assailed by a peculiar noise. It seemed to me the rattling noise of many snakes. I suddenly came to the mouth of the cave and saw a rattlesnake lying in a torpid condition; they were shedding their skins. I could not see in the cave and recklessly threw a stone into it. In a second I heard again the loud rattling noise, and thousands of rattlesnakes came rushing out. I was too much frightened to retreat. They started toward me and my hair lifted my hat from my head. All at once the snakes wheeled and went in another direction. I turned my eyes and saw a magnificent spectacle. Thousands of black snakes, known as black runners, were advancing in line, all on their tails, and with their forked tongues protruding. The rattlers reared upon their tails and rushed forth to meet the black runners. They met with a loud report and many snakes were thrown hundreds of feet in the air. The black snakes popped their tails and the rattlers about all the rattlers to death. Many of the black ones were among the slain, however. At that time I had long black hair, but when my companions found me I had gray, curly hair, and the strange part of it is that my hair turned black and straight again in two years. I never went to look at a snake now. An old even makes me sick. I gave away a valuable gold ring because it was shaped like a snake."

THE NORMAL SCHOOL.

GOVERNOR NOTHERN LECTURED TO THE TEACHERS YESTERDAY.

The Attendance Increasing as Visitors Arrive and the Interest Grows.—Mr. Hoke Smith Lectures Today.

Governor Notthern lectured to the teachers yesterday at the normal school. The attendance was larger than on any preceding day, a number of visitors being attracted by THE CONSTITUTION'S announcement that the governor would speak.

It was a practical talk, full of useful and timely advice. The governor's advice was all the more effective because it was founded upon actual experience in the schoolroom—a lifetime of it.

"Nothing," said he, "so closely and materially affects the welfare and progress of the state as its common school system. That is a consideration of the utmost importance.

"To go one step further, nothing so closely and materially affects the school system of the state as the moral and intellectual standard of its teachers. This normal school is a step in the right direction, and I hope to see Atlanta's example followed by other cities and towns of the state. Schools of this sort should be established in each county, so that teachers in the rural districts may be benefited by the training. Teacher training is something it would pay the state to take hold of. It is a positive duty of the state to do something in this direction. Its money, so much as will be necessary for this purpose, could not possibly be invested to better advantage.

"This city deserves great credit for the establishment of this school. It is another mark of Atlanta progress and push and public enterprise."

Just after the governor had concluded his remarks, a resolution, thanking him for the address, was introduced by Professor W. M. Slaton. It was adopted unanimously.

THE EXERCISES TODAY. Mr. Hoke Smith is expected to lecture today to the normal school.

His subject will be, "The legal relation between the teacher, the pupil and the parent." This is an interesting subject, and what Mr. Smith may have to say will be of general interest.

This matter, in effect, was the cause of a great deal of discussion recently in the board of education.

This series of lectures is proving one of notable interest.

Major Slaton is to lecture, whenever the lecturer engaged for the day is unable to be present, upon "The Theory and Practice of Teaching." So that there is a guarantee against one's being disappointed in the lectures. Major Slaton, himself, is one of the most thoroughly informed teachers in the south, and always an interesting lecturer upon that subject.

The classes are all in working trim now, and the exercises are full of interest.

A cordial invitation is extended to teachers all over the state to come and attend the school, free of all charge.

Quite a number of visiting teachers are here already, and others are coming in daily.

THE WEST POINT CADETSHIP. Congressman Livingston Furnishes a Card Bearing on the Subject.

A number of young men in this congressional district who have longings toward West Point will read with interest Congressman Livingston's announcement with reference to this matter. It is:

To Whom It May Concern: There will be an examination of applicants for a cadetship to the United States Military Academy from the fifth congressional district at my office, 20 West Hunter, Atlanta, Ga., on the 30th of July next, 9 o'clock a. m. Applicants must be between seventeen and twenty-two years of age, unmarried, at least five feet in height, free from any infectious or immoral disorder, and, generally, from any deformity, disease, or infirmity which may render them unfit for military service. He must be well versed in reading, in writing, including orthography, in arithmetic, and have a knowledge of the elements of English grammar, of descriptive geography (particularly our own country) and the history of the United States.

All candidates should cause themselves to be thoroughly examined by a competent physician to ascertain if there exist any physical disqualifications on the day of examination.

The informal examination herein suggested is solely for the convenience and benefit of the candidate himself, and can in no way affect the decision of the academic and medical examining boards, which will have a board of three competent gentlemen to make the academic examination.

The applicants can agree upon some competent physician prior to furnishing physician's certificate. Applicants can furnish their endorsements and references on the day of examination.

The Best Investment You Can Make. Atlanta real estate is a good investment, and always yields handsome profits to those who have money. A dollar invested in a lottery is good when you win the capital prize, provided you would use the money to buy a lottery ticket (and who wouldn't?). But the best investment of all is to be cured of all ills, restored to health, and thereby be happy. It don't take a fortune for that.

Now, if you have a case of PILES or an old痔, that you want to keep for the sake of company, you don't need me, but if you have and want to get well, I will GUARANTEE to cure you.

I will not hurt you either. There is no ancient remedy in my office, the left some time, in fact before I met him. Everything fully answered by the times. Now, do you believe what I say? Maybe you don't. My patients are willing to talk for me, so, if you want proof, write to me for it. I can prove you all you want. You need not take my word for it, but you will take their, provided you know the man. I offer you all this. A cure thrown in.

WHAT'S IN COCA COLA?

A Popular Drink Which Is Said to Foster the Cocaine Habit.

"I want to call your attention to a very vicious and pernicious thing which is going on in this and almost every other town," said a thoughtful citizen yesterday.

"What is that?" "The drug stores and the soda fountains are selling enormous quantities of something they call coca-cola. It is said to relieve nervousness, and that 'tingling' feeling and all that sort of thing, and people are drinking it a dozen times a day. I am told by a physician that the ingredient which makes coca-cola so popular is cocaine. There is evidently enough of it in the drink to affect people and it is insidiously but surely getting thousands of people into the cocaine habit, which is a ten times worse than alcoholism, and as bad as the morphine habit. It is an awful drug and the victims of it are slaves. I have seen it!"

And here the gentleman shuddered. "A friend of mine was a victim of it," he continued, "and he killed himself before my eyes. He got so under the power of the cocaine habit that he saw he could not stop it, and he took a pistol and ended his life."

"I am confident that a chemical analysis of coca-cola would show the presence of cocaine. A physician tells me that is the ingredient which makes it popular, and it seems to me that it is a matter which the board of health ought to look into."

LOW RATES FOR SCOTCH-IRISH. The Southern Passenger Association Names a Rate of One and a Third Fare.

A special rate has been made for the Scotch-Irish meeting by the Southern Passenger Association. It will be the full fare going and one-third of the highest limited fare returning, as indicated by the following letter:

MR. W. HUGH HUNTER, SECRETARY, ATLANTA, GA.—Dear Sir: Referring to your application for excursion rates for this occasion, I beg to advise that rates of one fare going and one-third of the highest limited fare returning, the certain plan, as explained in the attached blank, Form 11, are authorized from points in the state of Georgia; and from New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania. Yours very respectfully, M. SLAUGHTER, Assistant Commissioner.

The visitors should be careful to get the tickets at their own station, otherwise the rate will not be available.

This plan is adopted by the railroads to prevent the sale of return tickets to scalpers, who cannot be prevented from buying and selling the ordinary return ticket.

The outlook is that there will be an attendance of about 150 from different parts of the state. Mr. Hunter has a voluminous correspondence.

Morris Park Races. MORRIS PARK, N. Y., June 11.—The weather and track were first-class. The Gossamer stakes for two-year-old fillies and the Thorough Neck for three-year-olds were won by representatives of the Morris stable, but it cost more to win the three-year-old than it was worth, as Terrifier, the winner, was entered to be sold for $5,000, and Matt Byrne ran him up to $9,000, at which price he was bought in. Outside of Terrifier, there was not a single favorite successful, and the talent went home mourning.

First race, purse $1,000, six furlongs, Longstreet won, Latocca second, Tormer and Harting, 1:14. Second race, handicap for three-year-olds and upwards, mile and a furlong, Riley won, Madstone second, Sir John third. Time, 1:35 1/2.

Third race, Cassano stakes for two-year-old fillies, with $1,500 added, six furlongs, Spinalung won by a length from Lizzie Dunbar filly, which beat Anna B. two lengths. Time, 1:15 1/2.

Fourth race, Thorough Neck stakes for three-year-olds, with $1,500 added, seven furlongs, Terrier won, L. L. Dunbar second, Lima third. Time, 1:28.

Fifth race, light weight handicap, $1,000 added, mile and a sixteenth, and a sixteenth, Jack Morrow second, Diablo third. Time, 1:47.

The Ascot Races. LONDON, June 11.—At Ascot today the race for the gold cup, value $1,000 sovereigns, about two miles and a half, was won by Lord Harrington's four-year-old colt, Marion, Lascelle's four-year-old colt, Queen's Birthday, second, and John Greston's four-year-old colt, Consulate, third.

"The Quality of Mercy Is not strained," neither is the relief afforded by that incomparable medicine, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. A prime attribute is thoroughness. Very conspicuous is this quality when it is used for malaria. The poison of that malarial in the system it entirely expels. Equally effective is it in dyspepsia, constipation, bilious and kidney trouble and rheumatism.

Notice. A local bill will be introduced in the general assembly of Georgia, during the session which meets in July next, to be entitled: An act to incorporate the Interstate Abstract and Banking Company, and for other purposes.
